

Law Day Celebrated

Like many Years, this year also Law Day (Constitutional Day) was celebrated at school of legal studies, Babu Banarasi Das University, Lucknow. The program was inaugurated by Dr. Rohit P. Sabran (Head I/C) of school of legal studies, BBDU. He has enlighten students and faculty with the information related to the history and evolution of this day. Dr. Sabran also told students the importance of study and scope of constitution. Students from LLM, LLB and Ph.D scholars has taken active part in the event with enthusiasm. Students have presented their views on constitution of indie and shared facts and information about evolution and drafting of Indian constitution mentioning that INDIA HAS lengthiest written constitution in this world.

