

BBD University organised self defense training programme for girls

BBD University organized a self defense training programme for girls. Girls should always be self dependent and capable of protecting themselves. This is a big challenge of society. To overcome this problem self defense training programme was organized at Dr. Akhilesh Das Gupta Auditorium, BBD University.

The Famous martial arts trainer Shaurya Shifuji Bhardwaj was invited to train the girls. The grand master Shaurya Shifuji Bharadwaj taught ample of amazing tricks of self defense that audience was surprised to learn them.

The chief guest for the occasion was Mr. Navneet Sikera, a senior IPS officer. In his address he appealed to the students not tolerate any oppression or brutality and if someone does something wrong toward women we should stand together and raise the voice against them.

In this program 1090- women power line team was present. In this Programme, Police Identity Cards were distributed to selected girls can act as a representative of the police in order to protect the sufferers.

On the occasion Vice Chancellor, Dr. A. K. Mittal, deans and directors were present. Honorable Vice Chancellor uplifted the morale of the girls and highlighted the fact that they are no lesser than the boys.

Dr. S.M.K. Rizvi Dean student welfare proposed the vote of thanks and thanked Dr. Akhilesh Das Gupta, Hon'ble Chairman, BBD Group for giving inspiration to organize various events for overall development of the students.