

S.No. : 344

AR 1606

No. of Printed Pages : 03

Following Paper ID and Roll No. to be filled in your Answer Book.

PAPER ID : 10137

Roll
No.

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

B. Arch. Examination 2021-22

(Even Semester)

THEORY OF DESIGN

Time : Three Hours]

[Maximum Marks : 60

Note :— Support your answer by citing suitable examples and neat sketches.

SECTION - A

1. All questions are compulsory : 8×1=8

(a) “Less is more” is the statement given by

(b) Petronas tower design is based on

(c) Contextation was one of the major theories of

[P. T. O.

- (d) is considered the best example of De Stijl movement.
- (e) Marselle's building was designed by
- (f) Fagus shoe last factory, Germany was designed by
- (g) Frank Lloyd Wright propagated the theory of
- (h) Lloyd's building, London was designed by

SECTION – B

2. Attempt any three parts of the following : $3 \times 4 = 12$

- (a) Explain Italian futuristic architecture by citing suitable examples to support your answer. Discuss its salient features.
- (b) Elaborate upon the salient features of post-modern architecture with the help of projects of Charles Moore.
- (c) Explain the salient features of neo-modern architecture in the light of works done by Richard Mier.

- (d) Discuss deconstructivism and its impact through the works of Benard Tschumi.

SECTION - C

Note :- Attempt any two questions of the following.

2×2=40

3. Explain picturesque and neo-classical architecture by citing example of Britain and France in this context.
4. Explain chronologically the development of international style by citing suitable examples in support of your answer.
5. Explain the philosophy of Mies Vander Rohe through his architectural masterpieces. Discuss any two projects to subscribe his philosophy.

