

BBDU RESEARCH POLICY

Purpose

Babu Banarasi Das University aims to establish as a research-intensive university by creating an environment conducive for its academic staff and research scholars, to carry out their research work. The research policy of the university is expected to provide a broad framework for all kind of research activities in the university.

Scope

This policy shall be applicable to all Department and School of the University.

Aim

- To foster a research culture in the University by encouraging research initiatives across the area of studies
- To ensure a positive environment for faculty and research scholar to carry out high quality research work
- To promote Inter-Institutional Collaboration for inter-disciplinary researches
- To encourage and engage the undergraduate and postgraduate program students in research oriented activities

POLICY COMPONENTS

1. All faculty members should carryout independent research besides guiding the Ph.D. thesis and Dissertations/Projects of students of all undergraduate and postgraduate programs of the university.
2. The Departments and Schools of the University shall encourage interdisciplinary research collaboration among the faculty members.
3. The University will felicitate all initiatives of academic and industry partnerships to strengthen the interdisciplinary research collaboration.

4. The university shall provide Seed Fund Grant for minor projects to faculty for generating preliminary results before submitting a proposal for an extramural funding from National/International funding agencies.
5. The University shall provide all assistance to faculty members for submitting the research proposal for financial grants to National/International funding agencies.
6. The Departments and Schools will take necessary steps to include research oriented courses in curriculum at undergraduate and post graduate levels to engage and encourage the students in innovative and outcome based studies.
7. The University will provide all necessary support for organizing national and international conferences/ workshop/seminars.
8. The faculty members shall be encouraged to participate in national/ international conference and publish their work in high quality peer reviewed journals.
9. The University shall provide financial support to faculty members for attending conferences/seminars/workshops.
10. The IQAC of the university shall be further strengthened to monitor and maintain the records of all research activities and events in the university campus.
11. IQAC shall also regularly organize workshops, training programmes for students and faculty from departments and colleges regarding research methodology, writing proposal, management of research project, dissemination of research findings, writing of publication, academic integrity, ethical practices etc. to improve research training and enhance research skills.
12. All research publications by the faculty and research scholars shall strictly adhere to the academic integrity policy of the university.
13. Research projects that involve human or animal subjects must be approved in advance from concerned regulatory bodies.