The School of Hotel Management (SoHM), Babu Banarasi Das University (BBDU) has their own recreational club 'Umang'. The main aim of which is to provide a vibrant platform for students to unwind, socialize, and pursue passions beyond academics. The club tries to bring together students of all the years and faculties one step closer, where they can unwind, build friendships, and engage in enriching pursuits. The club tries to break the monotony of the daily routine by catering to all age groups, making it a perfect destination for anyone looking to add fun and relaxation to their routine. During the event, various games were organised where students from 1st year to 4th year participated which include 'Flip the bottle', 'making the pyramid with the teacups within 20 seconds followed by 'bollywood trivia' and lastly there was 'musical chair'. All the games were not only participated and enjoyed by students but also by the faculty members participated in the games. There were also cultural performances by the 1st year students who took active participation in each and every activity very enthusiastically. Recreational Club Umang of SoHM stands as a beacon of positivity, offering a space where students from 1st year to 4th year come together to relax, learn, and grow. Whether you want to showcase your talent, learn new skills, or simply have a good time, Umang has something to offer everyone. By participating in the activities of Club Umang, student embarks on a fulfilling journey filled with joy, camaraderie, and lifelong memories.
